

Candidates, Officeholders Campaign workers and Grassroots activists

It is time to begin preparing for your upcoming campaign for the November 4, 2008 Election.

The Texas Federation of Republican Women together with the Kaufman Co. RW will be having a Candidate and Grass Roots Training Seminar on Saturday, August 16, 2008. The School will be held in Kaufman, with a location to be determined. The class will begin at 8:30 a.m. and last until 4:00 p.m. Refreshments and Lunch will be provided.

The pre-registration fee is $15.00 for one person and $25.00 for two, the registration fee at the door will be $20.00 and $25.00 respectively.

Whether you are a statewide, countywide or precinct level candidate or campaign worker, this event is a good way to get your campaign off to a good start.

Many of the Republican Women's Clubs require candidates to attend campaign training as a prerequisite to their donating money to their campaigns.
