

CAMPAIGN ACTIVITIES

Dear fellow Republican Women, as we celebrate the Christmas season and make New Year's resolutions, let us remember to thank our Republican office-holders for standing firm for their values during the past few tough weeks.

As of today, there are still some clubs that I haven't heard from regarding their campaign hours, so this is your "heads up". The Dewhurst Competition has officially ended, and the hours that you collected since April 9 to December 16, 2008 should be sent to TFRW by Jan. 15, 2009. The regular quarterly report of hours is due to me in January, also, as the end of that reporting period is December 31. So if the reason I haven't heard from your club is that you've been so busy working for candidates, it's okay. If you have already reported, THANK YOU.

Great news, three new Republican Women's clubs were federated recently, good work, ladies! As we gear up for the many challenges ahead, and work to keep Texas Republican, it bears repeating...we must focus on the issues that unite us. And if we're to be the "Million Hours" state, I must hear from you in the coming months. This is also the perfect time to email me your current contact info, especially if it has changed.

We're looking forward to our Campaign Management Schools that are being set up and scheduled, so let me know if you are interested in hosting one in your area.

Happy New Year, and God bless you all...
