

Looking for Directions to Build a Great Club?

Now, more than ever, you need an organized, strong Republican Women's Club!

Follow the guidelines in the John Goodwin Tower Award of Excellence Application to achieve success!

You can find the application that serves as a guide on www.tfrw.org.
Click on "TFRW Forms & Reporting"

Things to Remember:

The Award covers the time period January 1, 2008 to December 31, 2009

HOWEVER, the awards will be presented at the TFRW Convention in Galveston, November 13-15, 2009.

In order to evaluate the applications for awards there is a September 12, 2009 postmark deadline that must be observed. SO, you will be expected to estimate any information that is not completed for the last "quarter" of 2009.

Happy New Year!

If you are a new President or a new Awards Chairman, Congratulations! Please ask your former President and Awards Chairman to explain the process and work together with them for a smooth transition.
Even though this is a new year for you it is not a separate year for the Awards Program. Awards are presented for work that takes place over a two year period; in this case Awards will be presented at the TFRW Convention in Galveston in November, 2009 for work done throughout 2008 AND 2009. When you read through the John Goodwin Tower Awards application and Awards Checklist it will be explained. If you have questions that cannot be answered in your club, please contact me at rebecca@uniquestaffing.com and I will be happy to help you get started.

If you are a continuing President or Awards Chairman, keep up the good work! You are halfway to completion! Thanks for your hard work to help make your club a success.

Rebecca Bradford
Awards Chairman
