

Auxiliary Liaison Report

Elizabeth Weems Jones, Auxiliary Liaison

My many thanks to all who worked so hard with our youth across the state and beyond during this past election. The youth were definitely present in this past election and it demonstrates their desire to step up and take their place among the ranks of the many great leaders of the Republican Party. I am calling you to action to help make this possible across our great state of Texas. We are asking that each club recruit and sponsor young outstanding leaders to our meetings and events. The TFRW Legislative Day on April 16, 2009 and for many it will be a wonderful opportunity to see how our great organization works and fuel their minds to take action across our state and country to create a positive change in our party.

Across our state many Young Republicans, College Republicans, Young Conservatives and Teenage Republicans are working hard and waiting for their chance to make a true difference and you can provide them that opportunity. In these tough times all we keep hearing is the youth are "ready for a change" and that the Democrats are the answer. I am here to tell you that they are ready for a change, and the Democrats are not it! Our youth have spoken out and they are yearning for the strong Republican Party we so recently were. Let's show them that we are committed to that revival, and that we are here to support them while blazing the path for their futures. Toni Anne has once again arranged a great meeting where these talented individuals will hear the United States Senate candidates in a panel debate, meet highly respected elected officers, witness our great Capital in action and see first-hand how motivated TFRW is in joining with them in this new era.

These youth organizations have so much for us to learn from them as well. They are moving the Republican Party into the next generation by successfully integrating new technologies such as Twitter, blogs, Facebook, weekly email updates, MySpace and much more. These are great ways to get the word out and bolster energy for our Party's efforts. If you have not joined I highly encourage you to look into them. If you would like to check out some of the youth pages out there they can be found at <http://www.yct.org/> , <http://www.tyrf.org/>, <http://www.myspace.com/texasyr> , <http://texascr.squarespace.com/>, <http://crnc.org> .

TFRW has made this mission a top priority, setting aside $500 this year to go towards auxiliary groups such as these. We plan to make our presence known among our youth. They are the future of our country and our party, and we have to show them that we stand behind them.

Registration forms for the TFRW Legislative Day will be available at www.tfrw.org in the near future.
