

CAMPAIGN ACTIVITIES

MARCH 2009

Greetings fellow Republican Women!

Good news is....you all have reported nearly 525,000 campaign hours so far, bad news is....many clubs have not reported at all, and we need to hear from more of you if we're to be the Million Hours State. I know many of you are out there working, so please let me hear from you, so that your clubs will get the credit they have earned. Remember that the time you spend making calls on behalf of the voter ID bill is countable, for example.

We have 2 more reporting periods to bear in mind: March 15 for the Legislative Day awards, and the middle of April for the 1st quarter of 2009, for NFRW awards. Each report has its own form. For you who are new to your positions, we know it can be confusing, so please call anytime you have questions. The general guidelines for counting hours are included to help you.

Although there is no more worthy cause than doing things for the troops, those projects are not countable towards campaign hours, but are counted in Community Service or Caring for America.

So Ladies, keep in touch, keep the faith, and Thank You!!
