2010 –Revved Up and Getting Organized

Carolyn Hodges – 1st Vice President, Special Events

As we welcome 2010 with our resolutions and new goals, let's not forget to add TFRW to our list in January. In just a few weeks, the TFRW Leadership Seminar will be held in Austin on January 30, 2010. Please refer to the registration form found in this newsletter. It is most important that you plan to attend!

And on the evening before who will be in Austin to rev us up? It is going to be none other than Dana Perino, former White House Press Secretary and current Fox News contributor. Just between us, there is a possibility a very famous, and much loved Republican insider will introduce her. You will not want to miss the evening of January 29, as TFRW welcomes you and your guests to a very special evening with Dana Perino. There is a registration form in this newsletter for this event as well, and I wish to call your attention to the "Patron Special" as one of the sponsorship levels. This would be an excellent way for you to renew your Patron status and have some additional benefits regarding this event.

The next day at the Leadership Seminar, all TFRW Board Members and incoming club presidents will receive their new Leadership Handbooks for 2010-2011. This is such an important book for you to have! It is not one to sit on the shelf but a fabulous book of resources designed to assist with your duties as an officer, board member, or committee chairman in all aspects of our Republican Women's organization.

The handbook is as important as your gavel! New club presidents will want to embrace the information found here and share it with your club officers and board members in a timely manner. It will get your club and its leadership organized for the year.

Both the Leadership Seminar and the event with Dana Perino will take place at The Sheraton Austin Hotel near the Texas Capitol.

See you in Austin!
