

NATIONAL FEDERATION SCHOLARSHIPS

The National Pathfinder Scholarship

The National Federation of Republican Women established the National Pathfinder Scholarship Fund in 1985 in honor of First Lady Nancy Reagan. The three annual scholarships of $2,500 each are available to provide financial assistance and support to young women seeking undergraduate or postgraduate degrees. College sophomores, juniors, and seniors, and students enrolled in a Masters Program are eligible. Applicants must be U.S. citizens. Recent high school graduates and first year college women are not eligible to apply for the scholarship. Scholarship winners may not reapply. Applicants may only apply for one NFRW scholarship per year.

A complete application must include the following:

- ◆ Official application form, sections A-H fully completed.
- ◆ Three letters of recommendation, including telephone numbers of authors for follow-up.
- ◆ An official copy of your most recent college transcript.
- ◆ A one-page typed essay stating the reason why the applicant should be considered for the scholarship.
- ◆ A one-page typed essay on career goals.
- ◆ Optional photograph.
- ◆ State Federation President Certification

The Betty Rendel Scholarship

The National Federation of Republican Women established the Betty Rendel Scholarship Fund in September of 1995 in honor of NFRW Past President Betty Rendel's extraordinary leadership skills and dedication to the Republican Party in her home state of Indiana, as well as on the national level. The three annual scholarships of $1,000 are designed for undergraduate women who are currently majoring in political science, government or economics. The recipients are chosen from applicants from across the nation. The scholarships are given to women who have successfully completed at least two years of college coursework and are U.S. Citizens. Scholarship winners may not reapply. Applicants may apply for only one NFRW scholarship per year.
