

Corrine Miklosh is a native of Chicago, and moved to Texas after a decade in California. Having lived half her life in liberal areas she appreciates the conservative values and beliefs of Texans. She recently served on the City of Plano's 2020 Census Committee, is a Precinct Chair in Collin County, and the Crime watch Coordinator for her Homeowners Association. Corrine is currently serving as TFRW Vice President Campaign Activities, and is a member of Conner Harrington RW in Plano where she has served in various roles including President. She previously served as the TFRW Merchandise Manager utilizing the skills she learned as a Purchasing Manager to find unique items for TFRW members. When she's not working with clubs and candidates, she enjoys shopping, pool time, and spending time with friends. Corrine is now retired and resides with her husband Dennis in Plano, TX.
