

Are you ready to serve as a TFRW Officer? Consider these questions when making a commitment to apply for a TFRW Executive Officer position.

- Have you looked at the Leadership Handbook and read all the Job Descriptions? A short cut has been set up on the TFRW Website to help you easily find the duties and Descriptions of Executive Officers of TFRW.
- The Executive Officers are: President, First Vice-President, Vice-President Bylaws, Vice-President Political Activities, Vice-President Finance, Vice-President Legislation, Vice-President Membership, Vice-President Programs, TFRW Secretary, and TFRW Treasurer. Have you decided which position might best suite your talents and contributions?
 - Do you have a second choice?
 - Are you a Team Player?
 - Can you make a difference?
 - What personal experiences and ongoing knowledge qualifies you for the position you are considering?
 - What would you do to enhance the description and the position?
 - Are your goals realistic?
 - Have you started prepping your Resume and Plan of Action?
 - How committed are you to do this job?
 - Executive Officers, Standing Committees, Deputy Presidents, District Directors, and Special Committee Chairmen are expected to attend all Quarterly Board Meetings and submit Quarterly Reports, in addition to speak to Clubs if requested. Travel is at your expense. Board meetings and hotel stays are at your expense. There is no reimbursement. Can you do this and will you serve?

These are all questions you need to answer for yourself. Being an Officer means you do a lot of behind-the-scenes work. It's sometimes easier watching from the outside until you actually get your feet wet and start doing the job.

If your ready take that first step, make the commitment and fill out the application. The Nominating Committee will have it available within a few months and will contact you for an interview appointment. Interviews will be held and the slate will be announced at the 3rd Quarter Board meeting

If you have any questions, feel free to contact any TFRW Officer and they will be happy to talk with you.
