

Bergundi Cain Bio

Bergundi Cain is a homeschool mom to five active boys. She currently is serving as TFRW's VP of Finance, and a second term on the Legislative Committee for the National Federation of Republican Women. She also is the current precinct chair for Harris County Precinct 673. In addition, she currently is President of the Legislative Ladies Club and started a mentorship program for incoming legislative spouses.

Previously, Bergundi served on the national subcommittee for Education Freedom, District Director for Senate District 6, the TFRW convention committee and TFRW legislative committee. Bergundi served as Caucus Chairman for SD 11 at the 2022 convention. She has served as Organization Committee Chair for the past 10 years for the Harris County SD 11 delegation. She has attended every state, senate and precinct convention in the past 12 years. She served as alternate to the Republican National Convention as well as serving as President of various Republican clubs including Baytown Republican Women and Clear Lake Area Republicans.

Bergundi is a member of the Worship Team at Faith Family Church in Baytown. She is a current member of Magic Circle Republican Women Club. She received a B.B.A. in Accounting from the University of Houston-Downtown. She, along with her husband Briscoe, live with their five sons in Deer Park.